1. Midterm Exam: An essay-based examination in class within exam week; a critical analysis of the modernist novels covered in the first seven weeks of the course.
2. Class Discussions: Participation in and contribution to weekly discussions.
3. Think Papers: Short, in-class reflective writing tasks (150 words ±10%)
(TP 1: 28 February, TP 2: 21 March, TP 3: 11 April, TP 4: 2 May)
4. Group Presentations: Collaborative presentation on the assigned novelists (see the Google Drive link for the details).
5. Term Paper: A 1000-word critical analysis of an assigned modernist novel (submit it on Turnitin until 16 May 2025 with quotes from the assigned novel under 20% similarity [no secondary sources except for the assigned novel] – see the Google Drive link for the details).
6. Take-Home Final Exam: A comprehensive, essay-based comparative evaluation of two selected modernist novels and themes discussed throughout the semester (the details will be sent on the Google Drive link on 16 May 2025, and you will need to submit it in three days on Turnitin with NO quotes but just critical analysis under 10% similarity).
